Vision:

Cooch Behar college has found inspiration in the immortal prayer of Upanishads: 'tomaso ma jyotirgamaya' - 'from the darkness lead me towards light', darkness symbolizing ignorance and light symbolising wisdom. This is the timeless urge of mankind. Cooch Behar College since its inception has been relentlessly working towards imparting standard and effective education to its students a sizable section of which come from socially and economically downtrodden section of the society in order to bring positive change. We firmly believe as it is reflected in our motto in reaching out to the young men and women of marginalized sections of our society with quality education deeply rooted in our diverse cultures which is intrinsically universal in nature, which will create a young, aware and vibrant youth power fully conscious about their potentiality, rights and duties. Empowered with such education the young section will definitely bring light of knowledge, prosperity and bliss not only to their own lives or community but to the entire nation and mankind.
